ALERT: ENGAGING VIDEO & OPPORTUNITY FOR SUMMER EDUCATION STORY

Asheville City Schools Hosts Summer Reading Camp

What: Asheville City Schools' interactive Summer Reading Camp is offering rising 2nd-4th Graders a chance to review skills learned during 2017-2018 as well as get a jumpstart on the upcoming school year.

In addition to engaging students through writing, read alouds and technology based learning, nearly 100 students are also participating in science experiments, garden labs and drama performances all through the lens of reading, reading, reading! Students too visit the library each and every day, where they're picking out books or creating their own puppet shows after learning about characters, settings and components of storytelling.

The Summer Program is FREE for all participating students.

When: Wednesday, July 25th
8:30 AM - 2:30 PM

Where: Hall Fletcher Elementary School
60 Ridgelawn Road, Asheville, NC 28806
